Mr. John B. Carle and B. F. Downing of the City of Janesville in the County of Rock for the consideration of one dollar to us in hand paid- the receipt whereof we hereby acknowledge and by these presents release and quit claim all our right and title to a strip of four rods ground for the use of a public highway on the line between us commencing in the highway East of C. J. Wilson's house and running North on our line to the Galena Road near the house in which William Gibson now lives, the road to be four rods wide - two rods each side of the line.

We agreed to open and to fence said road for the use of the public on or before the 15th day of May next for which the supervisors of the Town of Janesville in which town the said land and road is situated agree to pay us $280 to be equally divided between us and to be collected in the next tax list for said town and be paid to us on or before the first day of February 1871. It being a public highway this day laid and established and by ordered opened.
