Amending the 2014 Human Services Department Budget
To Accept MacArthur Foundation Cross-Action Network Funding

Executive Summary

The MacArthur Foundation Cross-Action Network has awarded the Department $19,800 to expand the juvenile justice system reforms undertaken in Rock County to a statewide level.

The Human Services Department was a MacArthur Foundation Model's for Change (MfC) Project participant for approximately 5 years. As part of the MfC Project, the Juvenile Justice Services Division underwent major system reform efforts and has been recognized as a leader in innovative practice.

The new funding will be directed to the establishment of a Juvenile Justice Leadership and Learning Collaborative to bring Rock County and other County juvenile justice system reforms to a statewide level. In addition, the funding will also support the development and writing of a Wisconsin Juvenile Justice Practice Model.
