On August 4, 2023, at approximately 2:30 P.M., a Correctional Supervisor at the Rock County Jail received a call from a citizen that had attempted to put money on the account of an inmate currently being housed at the facility.

The citizen conducted a Google search for "Rock County Bonds" he found a link for a site called "jailexchange.com" which looks affiliated to the Rock County Sheriff's Office due to photos of the Rock County Jail, an inmate search option, and payments for bonds and commissary. The site also offered Bail Bonds, which is not a service available in the State of Wisconsin.

The site has no affiliation with the Rock County Sheriff's Office. As a reminder, bonds can be paid in person with a picture identification, cash, or credit card in the lobby of the Sheriff's Office.

In addition, funds can be added to an inmate's commissary or bail account through Access Corrections at accesscorrections.com or by dialing 1-800-546-6283. There are also kiosks available in the lobby of the Sheriff's Office.
